Skills and Competencies

ENTERTAINER:

Charlee Simons has been entertaining since the age of eight, putting on comedy shows for the neighborhood kids and any unfortunate dinner guests of his parents. No one was immune! Working with Comedy Sportz International in Hollywood, he honed his improvisational comedy skills through their workshops and performed with them for a year. He's also enjoyed a successful radio and television career in the San Francisco Bay area, Sacramento, and Nashville. Whether it is voice acting, voice-over, on-camera commercials, television writing, acting, directing, editing, and producing (you can currently see his work on the America One Television Network's weekly show "411"), or radio and television personality, C. Lee Simons is a great talent to have on your team. Well, just experience him for yourself at CSimons.net, and, GoodBoyBuster.com.
